Theme for 2023-2025
“Celebrating 100 Years”

FFGC Awards Chair, Sandra Arnold

Winter 2023

Updated 12/16/2023

ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

FFGC bestows over 100 awards at the annual convention. Applying for an award has seemed daunting to new members. This handbook seeks to simplify the process by one complete awards handbook with clear and consistent language and less redundancy.

1. The awards are grouped by type and then by award number.
2. Each page has a big header so you always know where you are.
3. The header of each new group lists how to submit your award. It is often the same person, but not always. If there is anything different about a single award, it will be included under that award. Only content that is different or contrary to the norm is included in the award description. Otherwise, it is always the person listed at the beginning.

The RESOURCE page is at the end of the document contains sample forms and other useful information. Always download the application form from the website and not from this document.

APPLY! ASK QUESTIONS! Ask your club president, your district director, the Awards Chair, the President, but please ask. Don't be shy. There is no award for shyness.
